

Working at the Kit Kat Club at the Playhouse Theatre is a unique and vibrant experience, immersed in the rich history and cultural significance of this iconic venue. The atmosphere is infused with the echoes of legendary performances, from George Bernard Shaw's debut to live concerts by iconic bands like Pink Floyd and The Beatles. The recent refurbishment in November 2021 adds a modern touch, creating a dynamic environment for the current production of Cabaret. The intimate setting with a seating capacity of 592 fosters a close connection between performers and the audience. Employees get to contribute to the ongoing legacy of the Playhouse Theatre, playing a role in maintaining its charm and ensuring a memorable experience for visitors. The blend of historical resonance and contemporary energy makes working at the Kit Kat Club a truly special and rewarding endeavour in the heart of London's West End.
