

THE BRISTOL HIPPODROME

Based in the centre of Bristol and with one of the largest theatre stages in Britain, The Bristol Hippodrome has established itself on the touring circuit for many major productions, thus becoming known as Bristol's West End Theatre.

We originally opened on 16 December 1912 and can seat 1951 guests over 3 levels. We play host to large scale touring musicals, plays, opera, ballet and pantomime, as well as children's shows and established comedians and music artists.

Working at the Bristol Hippodrome, you will be part of a dedicated team supporting the work of some of the biggest shows in the country. It's fast paced with hard work and high expectations, but the experience you gain, the friends you make and the stories you tell your family and friends will last a lifetime.
