

THE ALEXANDRA

EST. SINCE 1901

About

Birmingham's beloved theatre, The Alexandra, was built in 1901 by William Coutts and throughout its vast history, has become home to first class entertainment. Located in the heart of the city, the theatre welcomes hundreds of performances each year.

In 2018, the venue underwent an extensive refurbishment and reverted to its original name, The Alexandra. The theatre is a valuable contributor to culture within Birmingham and the West Midlands, presenting a programme of world class theatre including West End musicals, drama, comedy and more.

Location

Conveniently positioned just a 2-minute walk from Birmingham New Street Station and a 10-minute walk from Birmingham Moor Street, the theatre is easily accessible by public transport. There's also a number of recommended car parks nearby, including St Judes Passage, Mailbox and The Arcadian. Our stage door is located on Station Street and is contactable on 0121 230 9071.

Team

The Alex venue team is brimming with creativity. Although small in size, it is mighty in ideas. Staff are proud to work at the theatre and this hasn't gone unnoticed, as the venue was awarded Team of the Year at the Midlands Service Excellence Awards 2024.

