

About Aylesbury Waterside Theatre

We're pleased to have piqued your interest in coming to work at Aylesbury Waterside Theatre. It's important for you to also understand what it is like to work here. Afterall, we could be spending a lot of time in each other's company.

Firstly, it's fair to say that we are unapologetic in bringing some of the best touring musicals and theatre to the town, as well as some of the biggest names in comedy and music. Since opening we have presented everyone and everything from Paul Weller to Gary Barlow, Tom Allen to Katherine Ryan, and SIX to The Full Monty. Complemented by great theatre such as An Inspector Calls and The Play That Goes Wrong, alongside much-loved tribute shows and engaging family theatre, it's no surprise we welcome more than 200,000 people every year to more than 300 events.

Sitting at the heart of the town in leafy Buckinghamshire, the theatre is about a 10-minute walk from Aylesbury train station. There's a direct route from London Marylebone in less than an hour. The nearest car park is Waterside North with good road connections from Oxford, Milton Keynes, High Wycombe, and Watford. We are also surrounded by the Chiltern Hills, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, and plenty of picturesque villages, almost as Instagram-worthy as our stunning venue and iconic auditorium. Yes, we know you will do it too.

By joining our team, you will be working with some of the most dedicated and committed people in the entertainment industry. In return you will have an opportunity for growth and creating memorable experiences and meaningful opportunities for our community. We're relaxed, yet professional. Friendly and personable. We love diversity of thought and action over inaction. Hopefully you think that will suit you too.
