

The Ambassadors Woking: New Victoria Theatre | Rhoda McGaw Theatre | Nova Cinema

The Ambassadors Woking offers a world of entertainment under one roof, right in the heart of Surrey.

The New Victoria Theatre opened in 1992 and is firmly established as one of the most beloved theatres in the South East. Boasting state-of-the-art facilities, excellent acoustics and clear sight lines it has hosted first-class performances from the Royal Shakespeare Company, the National Theatre, Matthew Bourne and a number of hit shows direct from the West End.

The Rhoda McGaw Theatre caters for Woking's many community groups, societies, semi-professional and professional content. It has a varied programme of entertainment throughout the year including musical theatre, comedy, opera, dance, drama and youth performances.

Nova Cinema is Surrey's go-to destination for the ultimate cinema experience. With hand-picked programming and all the latest releases, it has seven stylish screens (including one luxury screen), an elegant full-service bar and a suite for community and business hire.

Working for The Ambassadors Woking

Every single member of our team contributes to our success and growth. What takes place on stage and screen is at the heart of everything we do; but it only happens because we have a brilliant team of people working behind the scenes. It's this passion and commitment that allows us to create great live entertainment experiences.

If you're a dynamic, innovative and inspirational individual with a love of the arts and live entertainment, we want to hear from you. If you have the desire to consistently exceed targets and expectations with skills and experience suited to the vacancy, you'll enjoy working in a fast-paced and dynamic industry and receive the best possible opportunities for personal and professional development.
