

Theatre Royal Brighton

The Venue

This iconic theatre welcomes 200,000 people a year through its doors to more than 300 performances. Five minutes from the beach and situated in the heart of the city, we offer a packed and varied programme of incredible shows plus a full schedule of amazing creative learning activities. Theatre Royal Brighton has played host to all the greats: Kean, Thorndike, Dietrich, Olivier, McKellen and many more. This intriguing and fascinating building is brimming with atmosphere and heritage and is a very special place to work.

History

Theatre Royal Brighton is Grade II* listed and one of the oldest theatres in the UK. First established in 1764 and on its current site since 1807, it has been in almost continual operation to the present day. It is one of only a handful of remaining hemp houses, using ropes manually to fly pieces of set on stage.

What it's like to work here

"Working at TRB across 3 departments is the most rewarding job I could ask for. Our customers are lovely, the team is unbelievably supportive and getting to work in the theatre industry is an absolute dream come true." – Daisy, FOH, Box Office & Stage Door

"Absolutely wonderful theatre. Stunning inside, really intimate and the staff are all wonderful" – James Bassett, Local Guide

"Thanks to you all for your extraordinary support, counsel and delivery, making Oliver the success it was with a week of sold-out performances." – Brighton Theatre Group
